BOOKING CONDITIONS

Our agreement

When you make a booking you must complete a booking form accepting on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions and pay a deposit (normally £300 but higher for specific trips).

Paying for your holiday

The balance of the price of your holiday must be paid on receipt of a final invoice at least 8 weeks before departure unless we have notified you otherwise. If the balance is not paid in time we reserve the right to cancel your holiday, retain your deposit and apply the cancellation charges set out below.

If you cancel your booking

You, or any member of your party, may cancel your holiday at any time, providing that the cancellation is made by the person signing the booking form and is received by us in writing. Cancellation charges as shown below will be applied.

- More than 56 days before departure – loss of deposit
- 29 – 56 days before departure – 60% of total trip cost
- 1 – 28 days before departure – 100% of total trip cost

If you cancel at any time you will also lose any non-recoverable costs. Note: If the reason for the cancellation is covered under the terms of an insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

Holiday prices

The price of your holiday is subject to surcharges due to unfavourable price changes in fuel, scheduled airfares, government imposed charges or adverse currency exchange rates. Even so we will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of the basic tour cost. If any surcharge greater than 10% is imposed you will have the right to cancel your booking within 7 days of notification and be entitled to a full refund.

If we have to cancel or change your booking

We will only cancel your holiday if you fail to make full payment on time or we are forced to do so by reasons of 'force majeure' such as war, threat of war, riots, civil strife, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural disaster and adverse weather conditions or the minimum number of clients to run a tour has not been reached. In the latter event we will advise you of cancellation not less than four weeks before departure. In both cases you will have the choice of an alternative holiday with Wild Photography Holidays, not necessarily at the same time, or receive a full refund. We will not be liable for any expenses incurred before receipt of our final invoice, such as, own flights, visas, vaccinations, etc., or for any compensation.

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your holiday but we reserve the right to do so. Minor changes are not acceptable as grounds for cancellation. In the event of a significant change such as a change in itinerary, transport or accommodation affecting more than 10% of the duration of the tour, you will have the choice of accepting the arrangements, taking another available holiday or cancelling and receiving a full refund.

No compensation will be payable and no liability beyond offering the above mentioned monies can be accepted where we are forced to make a change or cancel as a result of unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which we could not have avoided even with all due care or where we cancel for lack of numbers providing we notify you no less than four weeks before departure.

Insurance

As a condition of the booking you must be adequately insured. It is particularly important that all photographic and other technical equipment such as laptops are included in your insurance. All insurance must cover cancellation of the holiday, rescue and repatriation including helicopter and air ambulance. It is your responsibility to ensure that the insurance cover is adequate for both your and our requirements.

The holiday

Our trips will sometimes take you to remote and exciting places where the risk of injury, accident, loss of property, discomfort and delay is higher. Your booking is accepted on the condition that you realise and accept all these elements of adventure travel. The itinerary for each trip should be seen as an aim rather than a definite objective and for many reasons changes may need to be made to it or to aspects of the holiday at anytime during the trip. Whilst our leaders will make every effort to make suitable alternative arrangements, we cannot be held responsible for such changes, nor for any refunds.

The Company cannot be made liable for the consequences of weather conditions, flight cancellations, strikes, lost luggage, industrial action, wars, riots, sickness, quarantine, government intervention or other untoward occurrences. Any additional costs that result, such as extra hotel accommodation or flights, will be your responsibility and must be paid for at the time. Depending on the circumstances, such costs may be recoverable under your insurance.

Holiday leader

By signing our booking form, you agree whilst on the holiday to accept the decisions of the holiday leader who represents the company. If in their opinion your behaviour, performance or presence is detrimental to the safety and welfare of the group, or counter to the progress of the itinerary, the leader may ask you to leave at any stage without recourse to any refunds.

Our liability to you

Wild Photography Holidays always does its best to make sure that your holiday arrangements are satisfactory. It also accepts responsibility not only for the actions of its own employees, but also for those of its agents, suppliers and contractors provided they were acting within the scope or contract of their employment except where any action or event was unforeseeable or unavoidable even with all due care or attributable to any improper act or omission by the client or any third party.

Complaints

If you have any complaint about the holiday you should make it known as soon as possible to the holiday leader and the supplier concerned (if applicable). If it is still unresolved at the end of your trip you must notify the Wild Photography Holidays office within 30 days of your return where we will do our best to resolve it.

Your contract

This contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions and is subject to English law and the exclusive jurisdiction of English courts at all times.
